Dear Danilo:

This letter is to confirm our understanding that the Central American and Caribbean Textile and Apparel Council (hereinafter referred to as the "Council") has retained the services of Greenberg Traurig Hoffman Lipoff Rosen and Quentel (hereinafter referred to as "GTH") as Washington counsel in furtherance of legislative efforts on behalf of the Council.

Effective this date, June 4, 1993, and continuing until December 31, 1994, GTH will work with the Council and use its best efforts to represent the Council before the U.S. Government, including Congress, in advancing a reduction of reciprocal trade duties on textiles and apparel. The Council will pay GTH a fee of $200,000 U.S. dollars, payable on the following schedule:

June 4, 1993 - $10,000 U.S. dollars.

July 1, 1993 through December 1, 1993 - $15,000 per month;

January 1, 1994 through December 1, 1994 - $100,000, payable in monthly installments of $8,333.

In addition, the Council will reimburse GTH for all necessary and reasonable expenses associated with performance under this agreement, such expenses to be billed and payable monthly.

As you requested, the Council may terminate the continuation of this agreement after December 31, 1993, with ninety days advance written notification.

Attached hereto is a copy of the GTH Billing Policies notice for all clients of GTH, as well as the original proposal which constitutes our scope of work on behalf of the Council.

This letter and the attached documents represent the entire agreement of the parties and any change in the scope of our understanding may only be made by a writing signed by all parties. Further, our agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the District of Columbia.
